THE PRESS.

CINCINNATI, THURSDAY, MAY 19.

CORRESPONDENCE, containing important new solicited from any quarter of the world.

NO NOTICE taken of anonymous correspondence. We do not return rejected communications.

The Beginning.

The Hon. GEO. E. Pugn is, as we learn from unquestionable sources, engaged to perform the solemn and interesting ceremony of making a stump speech to the Democratic masses at Hamilton, on Saturday next. "It will be"-according to the Enquirer-"the first meeting in the important campaign upon which we are about entering in Ohio, and which is destined we"-that is to say the editor of that journal-"believe to see the State redeemed from Republican misrule." All of which is very professionally expressed. It is to be hoped that the Hon. Ggo. E. Punn will have safe deliverance of his speech aforesaid, that it will be received into a soil well stirred and composted, and bring forth a plentiful crop of redemption, as above set forth and fructi-

It is pleasant to know that the country never gets into difficulty that there are not a multitude of kind-hearted gentlemen ready and willing to lend a belping hand to pull it out. This is especially happy, as our country, in some of its phases of Union, State, County, or municipality, is perpetually running into danger, and, like a cow in a swamp pasture, forever upon the point of being fatally mired. The worst feature of the case is that the benefactors are so numerous, and they have such a disposition to pull in so great a variety of ways that very little progress seems to be made each, in the meantime, accusing the others of preventing the consummation which all profess to desire.

Is our State in a condition of misrule?that is the question. The Enquirer says that it is; while, on the other hand, that most excellent and infallible authority. the Unio State Journal, avers that it is in a beatific region of redemption from misrule, for which it is indebted to the Reublican party, pin which region the thing most desirable is that it should be continued. It is astonishing what a mean opinion parties - if party organs are to be credited-have of each other. That our cotemporary of the Enquirer really believes that the Republican leaders and officers are the greatest scoundrels yet unhung, we have no doubt: that our cotemporary of the State Journal is as honest in his opinion that all Democratic leaders and officers are unsanctified rogues, is not to be questioned. What are outsiders to think? Foreigners, who take these things, without understanding the Pickwickian sense in which they are intended set us down-and well they may-as in a wofal condition; for which see any British review or newspaper that treats of American affairs. In the meantime, we enjoy a comfortable hope that the thieves and scamps are in the minority in all parties; and this in spite of the general fatality which seems to attach to the occupants of our unfortunate State Treasury department.

We left Mr. Pugu upon his stumpwhere we placed him at the beginning of this artigle - standing and in profound silence. What will he say ?- for something must be said. Will he enlarge upon the wisdom, policy and statesmanship of his particular friend James Buchanan? Alas! his standing is not such with that distinguished individual as to place a high value upon his testimony Will he take up the subject of the Canal Contracts, and show the wrong that has been done to several distinguished demo crats; or will he read from and enlarge upon the late magnificent, multitudinous and miscellaneous Treasury Report Just now it looks as if it might be an up hill business to a modest man to embark in the business of stump speaking; but perhaps we are mistaken. At any rate, we wish, as above specified.

THE Enquirer very foolishly advertises the fact that t e estate of HENRY As-BOTT deceased has a lot of trush, called a museum of Egyptian Antiquities, and that there is a pending negotiation to sell it to the city of New York. Those of our City Council who can read will thereby learn that there is, if they only speak quick enough, a chance to get rid of money; and the probabilities are that so favorable an opportunity to spend the public funds and get nothing in return will not be suffered to pass without improvement. Probably we shall soon have the Assort Museum among us.

From N. Y. Papers of 17th inst ARRIVAL OF THE BRITISH YACHT ST. URSULA.

—The British yacht St. Ursula, Commander
Cairnie, arrived at this port on Sunday evening, at 8½ o'clock, in 30 days from the Clyde, on a pleasure trip. She sails under the flag of the Admirallyt, by permission of the British government. She belongs to the Royal Yacht Club, and her model was taken from the celebrated yacht America. She is topsail schooner rigged, and for comfort cannot easily be excelled. Her owner, Mr. Tennent, of Glasgow with his three nicces, also Messrs. Basil, Ro-Her owner, Mr. Tennent, of Glasgow

A HONEYMOON SPENT IN PRISON .- Mr. Marroney, the Express defaulter, now in Eldridge-street Jail in default of $80,000 bail, contemplated a rrip to Europe with his wife when ar-rested last Saturday. He had only been mar-ried to the lady who accompanied him since the 7th inst., at Philadelphia. Thus their matrimonial trip has had a very sudden termi-nation in a rather queer place, Eldridge-street

FALLING PROM A FIVE-STORY WINDOW, -As Catharine McGinniss was endeavoring to hang some clothes out of a five-story window of the tenement house No. 315 Water street, on Satur day, she lost her balance and fell to the pavement, a distance of over seventy feet. She was taken up dead, her body being shockingly mangled. She was a widow, and leaves neveral children. An inquest was held, and a verdice of "accidental death" rendered.

of "socidental death" rendered.

Falling from a Four-story Window.—
Wm. J. Riley, a little boy a year and a half old, on Saturday met with a frightful death
by falling out of a four-story window of No.
343 Ninth street, and striking upon some iron pickets underneath. His body was pierced through and through, and of course instant death followed. The Coroner held an inquest, and a verdict was rendered accordingly. LIABILITY OF HOTEL KEEPERS .- Ellsworth Cheesborough vs. Alfred Freeman. This was an action to recover damages for the loss of : trunk and contents valued at $250. Plaintiff was a guest at the International Hotel in July, 1858, and when be left, his trunk was not to found. The question was, whether the trun-bad ever been delivered at the hotel by Stud-ley's Express, the defendants having denied that it had been received. The porter testified that the baggage brought, consisted of two carpet-bags and two trunks checked together. A question of law arose on the trial, whether a quest is bound to see that his baggage is de livered. The Court instructed the jury that where a guest calls for his baggage, and the hotel proprietor does not call upon him to point tout, the proprietor is responsible for the delivery of the right baggage. Verdict for plain diff for $250. Tyler & Brown for plaintiff; Townsend, Dyett & Raymond for defendant.

It was reported yesterday afternoon that a beavy defalcation had been discovered in one of the departments of the Board of Education, o the amount of several thousand dollars, and hat every effort had been made to keep the natter quiet and from the public press. It was stated, however, that the matter cannot be cept private much longer, and that at the next nesting of the Board some inquiry will be made oneerning it. ATTEMPTED SUICIDE.—Last evening Officer Reutzell of the Seventeenth Precinct, while patroling his beat, discovered a young woman in a state of insensibility, lying on the street, and took her to the Station-house. A physician was called in, and upon examination, found the girl to be under the influence of laudanum Antidotes were administered, when she par tially recovered, and gave her name as Mar-garet Bark. She stated that on Sunday earet Bark. She stated that on sunday avening, in company with another young girl, he went into a stone-yard, and while sitting there talking, was attacked by a gang of rowdies who violated her person and the person of her triend. Fearing exposure, she resolved to kill herself, and with such intent swallowed a

A TRAGEDY RESULTING PROM A FARCE. fatal accident recently resulted at the Law School, about fifteen miles from Gallatin, Tenn. The students were illustrating the Forn. The students were illustrating the Washington affair, when the young man who took the next of one of the principals, jerked out a pistol which he did not know was loaded, and shot his most intimate friend through the chest. Mr. Tap used the pistol, and Mr. Burke received the shot. It was at first thought Mr. Burke would recover, but mortification had taken place. Mr. Tap had suffered so much in mind that he had two or three times attempted to kill himself, but been prevented by his young friends.

A Worthy Deed. There is, in all probability, no Order which There is, in all probability, no Order which can beast of the performance of more sunobling and generous acts than the Masons, and no Order whose deeds of charity are less often trumpeted forth to the world. A generous deed was performed by the Masons of Cleveland the other day, which, like a thousand other benevolent acts quietly performed by that Order, would never have been known to the public at large had we not chanced to hear it vesbenevolent acts quietly performed by that Order, would nover have been known to the public at large had we not chanced to hear it yeaterday from an authentic source. The particulars are these: The subject of their kindness is a lady about thirty-five years of age, widow of a Mason in Cincinnati, who stood high in the Order. At her husband's death, which occurred about ten years ago, she went to Boston, Massachusetts, as a teacher. Some five weeks ago she left Boston on her way to her former home in Cincinnati, and lost her baggage between the former city and Troy. The day being extremely sultry, her saxiety, coupled with the fatigue she underwent in walking about among the depots at Troy, looking for her lost baggage, induced an epileptic fit, to which she was subject, and she fell in the street. Being conveyed to a physician's office and restored to consciousness, she made known the fact that she was the widow of a Mason, and thereupon was visited and cared for hy members of the Lodge of that of a Mason, and thereupon was visited and cared for by members of the Lodge of that city. When she became able to undergo the fatigue of traveling, they furnished her with money, and gave her letters to the Master and Warden of Cleveland City Lodge, lest she should be compelled by illness to stop beshe should be compelled by illness to stop before completing her journey. She arrived here last Saturday afternoon and stopped at the Johnson House. In the night she was taken with fits again, and had a vicient succession of them. Her situation was made known to the Masons, and besides having the skillful services of Dr. Strong until her recovery, she was furnished with an excellent and exercial nurse. Yesterday she was quite restored, and this morning takes her departure for Cincinnati, with a heart full of gratitude towards the Cleveland City Lodge and the generous hearted Masons who constitute its members.—Cleveland Democrat, May 17.

The Boston Courier vehemently execrates Dr. Lardner's proposal to employ in war new agents, of a destructive power surpassing all former means of death and devastation. "Un-less human beings are converted into demons," says the Courier, "no such implements of war-fare could be countenanced for a moment." It strikes us that, according to this reasoning, gun powder and Minnie bullets, and rifled cannon, and all the improvements which science has made in the art of destruction ought to be and the second s plied, have tended to shorten wars and render them not only fewer, but less murderous; and it has been supposed that if means could be discovered by which an army could at once be annihilated, so that victory or defeat would depend not on numbers of men, but simply on getting the advantage of the first fire, war would be prevented altogether. Who knows but these new methods may be able to accom-plish a result so important?—N. Y. Tribune.

Sweet old Age.—God sometimes gives to man a guiltless and holy second childhood, in which the soul becomes childlike, not childish, and the faculties, in full fruit and ripeness, are mellow, without sign of decay. This is that sought for land of Beulah, where they who have traveled manfully the Chris inn way abide awhile to show the world perfect manhood. Life, with its battles and its sorrows, lies far behind them; the soul has thrown off its armor, and sits in an evenng undress of calm and holy leisure. Thrice blessed the family or neighborhood that numbers among it one of those not yet as-cended saints! Gentle are they, and toler-ant, and apt to play with little children, easy to be pleased with little pleasure.

MARKING PAPERS -Some Postmasters havng insisted that marking articles in newspapers with a pen or pencil, subjected the paper to letter postage, a gentleman wrote to the Postmaster General on the subject and re-ceived from First Assistant Postmaster, Horatio King, the following reply: Sir: In reply to yours of the 26th inst., inform you that a pen or pencil mark made for the sole purpose of attracting the eye to a particular article or portion of printed matter does not subject such matter to letter postage.

Mr. Van Anden, a well-known organist of Charleston, S. C., committed suicide on Sunday last, by taking arsenic. The Charleston Mercury says: "He had been visited within the past month by a gentleman from abroad, who accused Mr. Van Anden of having run away with his wife. Van Anden had been ar-rested, and, in default of $10,000 bail, comnitted to prison, which oppressed him heavily.

A SHARP REPLY.—"How do you feel, with such a shocking-looking coat on?" said a young clerk of some pretensions one morning to old Roger. "I feel," said old Roger, looking at him steadily with one eye half closed, as if tuking aim at his victim—"I feel, young man, as if I had a coat on which I had paid or-a luxury of feeling which I think you will gever experience."

In an article on the recent quadruple execu-tion in Baltimore, the Baltimore American ruly says: "Let a young man once becomamiliarized with the revolver, and there is but step between him and the halter. He who on his person is already a murderer in every-hing but the act, and only waits for an op-portunity and a little more whisky than usual."

THE POPE COMING .- Advices from Wash ngton inform us that letters have been re eived there from high sources, announcing he prevalence of rumors in Italy, that the Pope may be obliged to fly for refuge to this country. Our ministers at Rome and Naples are said to speak of this contingency as highly probable.

DEATH IN THE PULPIT .- A solemn and im pressive event occurred recently in the Bap ist Church, Yarmouth, Nova Scotia. After he sermon, John Hilton arose and addressed he congregation, "Be ye also ready, for in such an hour as ye think not the Son of Man ometh," when he sat down and instantly fell from his seat-a corpse.

Gas in Honorule.—The Legislature of Honolulu, Sandwich Islands, has past an act to right to W. H. Tiffany, James E. Wethered, H. Macfarlane, John Patty, and their associates, under the name of the Honolulu Gas Company, exclusive privilege of supplying Honolulu with gas for fifty years.

The question then arises, what is it? My wife has a satt she has worn four or five years, and I only gave $15 for it. I answer, certainly it will wear twenty years, for this reason, it is made from a sheet of solid with a sheet of some base metal at the back to make it firm and durable, but no lady could be expected to dwell long enough on the earth, to wear out the sheet of Gold composing the outside, and this is the kind of Jewelry retailed by all.

Now, Sir, I will further inform you, that this Jewelry can be sold at prices from Three to Eight Dollars, if you but do away with the cry of "something better."

Dealers are obliged to charge you enormous prices for goods, in order to satisfy you of their quality. SHAME! At this age of the world.
